

This isn't just any Festival - this is the brand-new, action-packed, thrill-a-minute Burgham Horse Festival. A fantastic new addition to Northumberland's sporting calendar, featuring top-level Showjumping, and Dressage.

WE HAVE CUSTOMERS AWAITING YOUR BUSINESS

A brand new major event in the British Showjumping calendar is coming to Northumberland. The BURGHAM HORSE FESTIVAL 2010 is set to attract between 6,000 and 10,000 visitors over the course of its inaugural weekend which will run from Fri 23rd – Sun 25th July. The event will attract top showjumping competitors, many of whom will be in training for the 2012 Olympics and Sky Sport will be covering the top classes included in Sunday's schedule. Additionally the event will incorporate unaffiliated Dressage and an eclectic trade village making it an ideal day out for all the family.

As you can imagine, public interest in this inaugural event is high and we would like to invite our local businesses to take prime position in amongst the hustle and bustle of the sporting action.

We still have a limited amount of outdoor trade stand space available or if you would prefer a covered stand we have both exhibition space and trestle table pitches available in one of our specialist marquees. Our competitive rates start at just £130+VAT for a trestle table pitch and just £65 per square metre for shell-stand exhibition space.

Additionally the Festival offers a wealth of advertising and sponsorship opportunities to ensure that your company takes centre stage at this prestigious event.

For further information about how the Burgham Horse Festival can benefit your business please contact our sales team and we will be happy to negotiate a package tailor-made to your requirements. We look forward to hearing from you.
